Mary E. Alexander

NATIONAL REPUTATION FOR EXCELLENCE IN PERSONAL INJURY LITIGATION

Mary Alexander doesn't only take on cases; she takes on causes. "My top priority is to fight for the just compensation my clients deserve," says the founder of Mary Alexander & Associates, a nationally recognized personal injury law firm. "My passion is to be a warrior for the injured."

She cites a case where a victim of faulty bicycle brakes was now a quadriplegic: "Because of the $13.3 million verdict we won on her behalf, she can live at home instead of in an institution. It means a great deal to make that much of a difference in someone's life."

PERSEVERANCE PAYS OFF

Alexander exclusively serves those injured through the wrongdoing of others, but victories often have positive repercussions that extend beyond individual cases. Armed with a master's degree in public health in addition to her law degree, Alexander fought as lead counsel on a landmark case concerning lead-based paint in California.

"Perseverance is my middle name," she says of the case, which spanned 14 years before the judge leveled a $1.15 billion verdict in January 2014. "The money will be put into a state fund to take lead paint out of homes, protecting the public health in tens of thousands of residences and preventing millions of children from injury and illness. That's what determination can do."

'TIRELESS ADVOCATES'

Mary Alexander & Associates brings a quarter-century of expertise to the full range of plaintiff suits. "Whether it's a motor vehicle or workplace accident, traumatic injury, product liability, or wrongful death case, we are tireless advocates for our clients," Alexander says.

She was recently awarded the Leonard Ring Champion of Justice Award, given to "a person whose character and integrity are unmatched, who has contributed to the public good and welfare, and whose life and law practice have helped the less fortunate," says Gary Paul, former President of the American Association for Justice. "On every single basis, Mary deserves this award."

"My passion is to be a warrior for the injured."
